1. A hidden Mickey in the queue for Soarin' Around the World

This is one of the most well-known hidden Mickeys in Disney California Adventure, but it's still a lot of fun to find. Look for it on the left-hand side of the queue, just before you enter the pre-show area.

2. A secret menu item at Flo's V8 Cafe

Flo's V8 Cafe is known for its delicious diner food, but did you know that they also have a secret menu item? Ask for the "Flo's Famous French Toast" and you'll be treated to a delicious breakfast treat that's not available anywhere else on the menu.

3. A hidden waterfall in Grizzly Peak

Grizzly Peak is home to some of the most beautiful scenery in Disney California Adventure, and there are a number of hidden gems to be found throughout the area. One of our favorites is the hidden waterfall that's located behind the Redwood Creek Challenge Trail. To find it, take the trail to the left of the waterfall and follow it all the way to the end. You'll be rewarded with a beautiful view of the waterfall and the surrounding mountains.

4. A secret room in the Haunted Mansion

The Haunted Mansion is one of the most popular attractions in Disney California Adventure, and it's also home to a number of secrets and hidden gems. One of our favorites is the secret room that's located behind the stretching room. To find it, look for the door that's hidden behind the grandfather clock. Once you've found the door, open it and step inside. You'll be transported to a secret room that's filled with all sorts of spooky and mysterious objects.

5. A hidden gem in Paradise Gardens Park

Paradise Gardens Park is a beautiful area that's often overlooked by guests. But there are a number of hidden gems to be found throughout the area, including this beautiful mosaic that's located near the Paradise Pier Hotel. To find it, look for the path that leads from the Paradise Pier Hotel to the Silly Symphony Swings. The mosaic is located on the left-hand side of the path, just before you reach the swings.

These are just a few of the many handcrafted scavenger hunt items that can be found at Disney California Adventure. So next time you're visiting the park, be sure to keep your eyes peeled for these hidden gems. You never know what you might find.
